A Message from Sean Mulryan

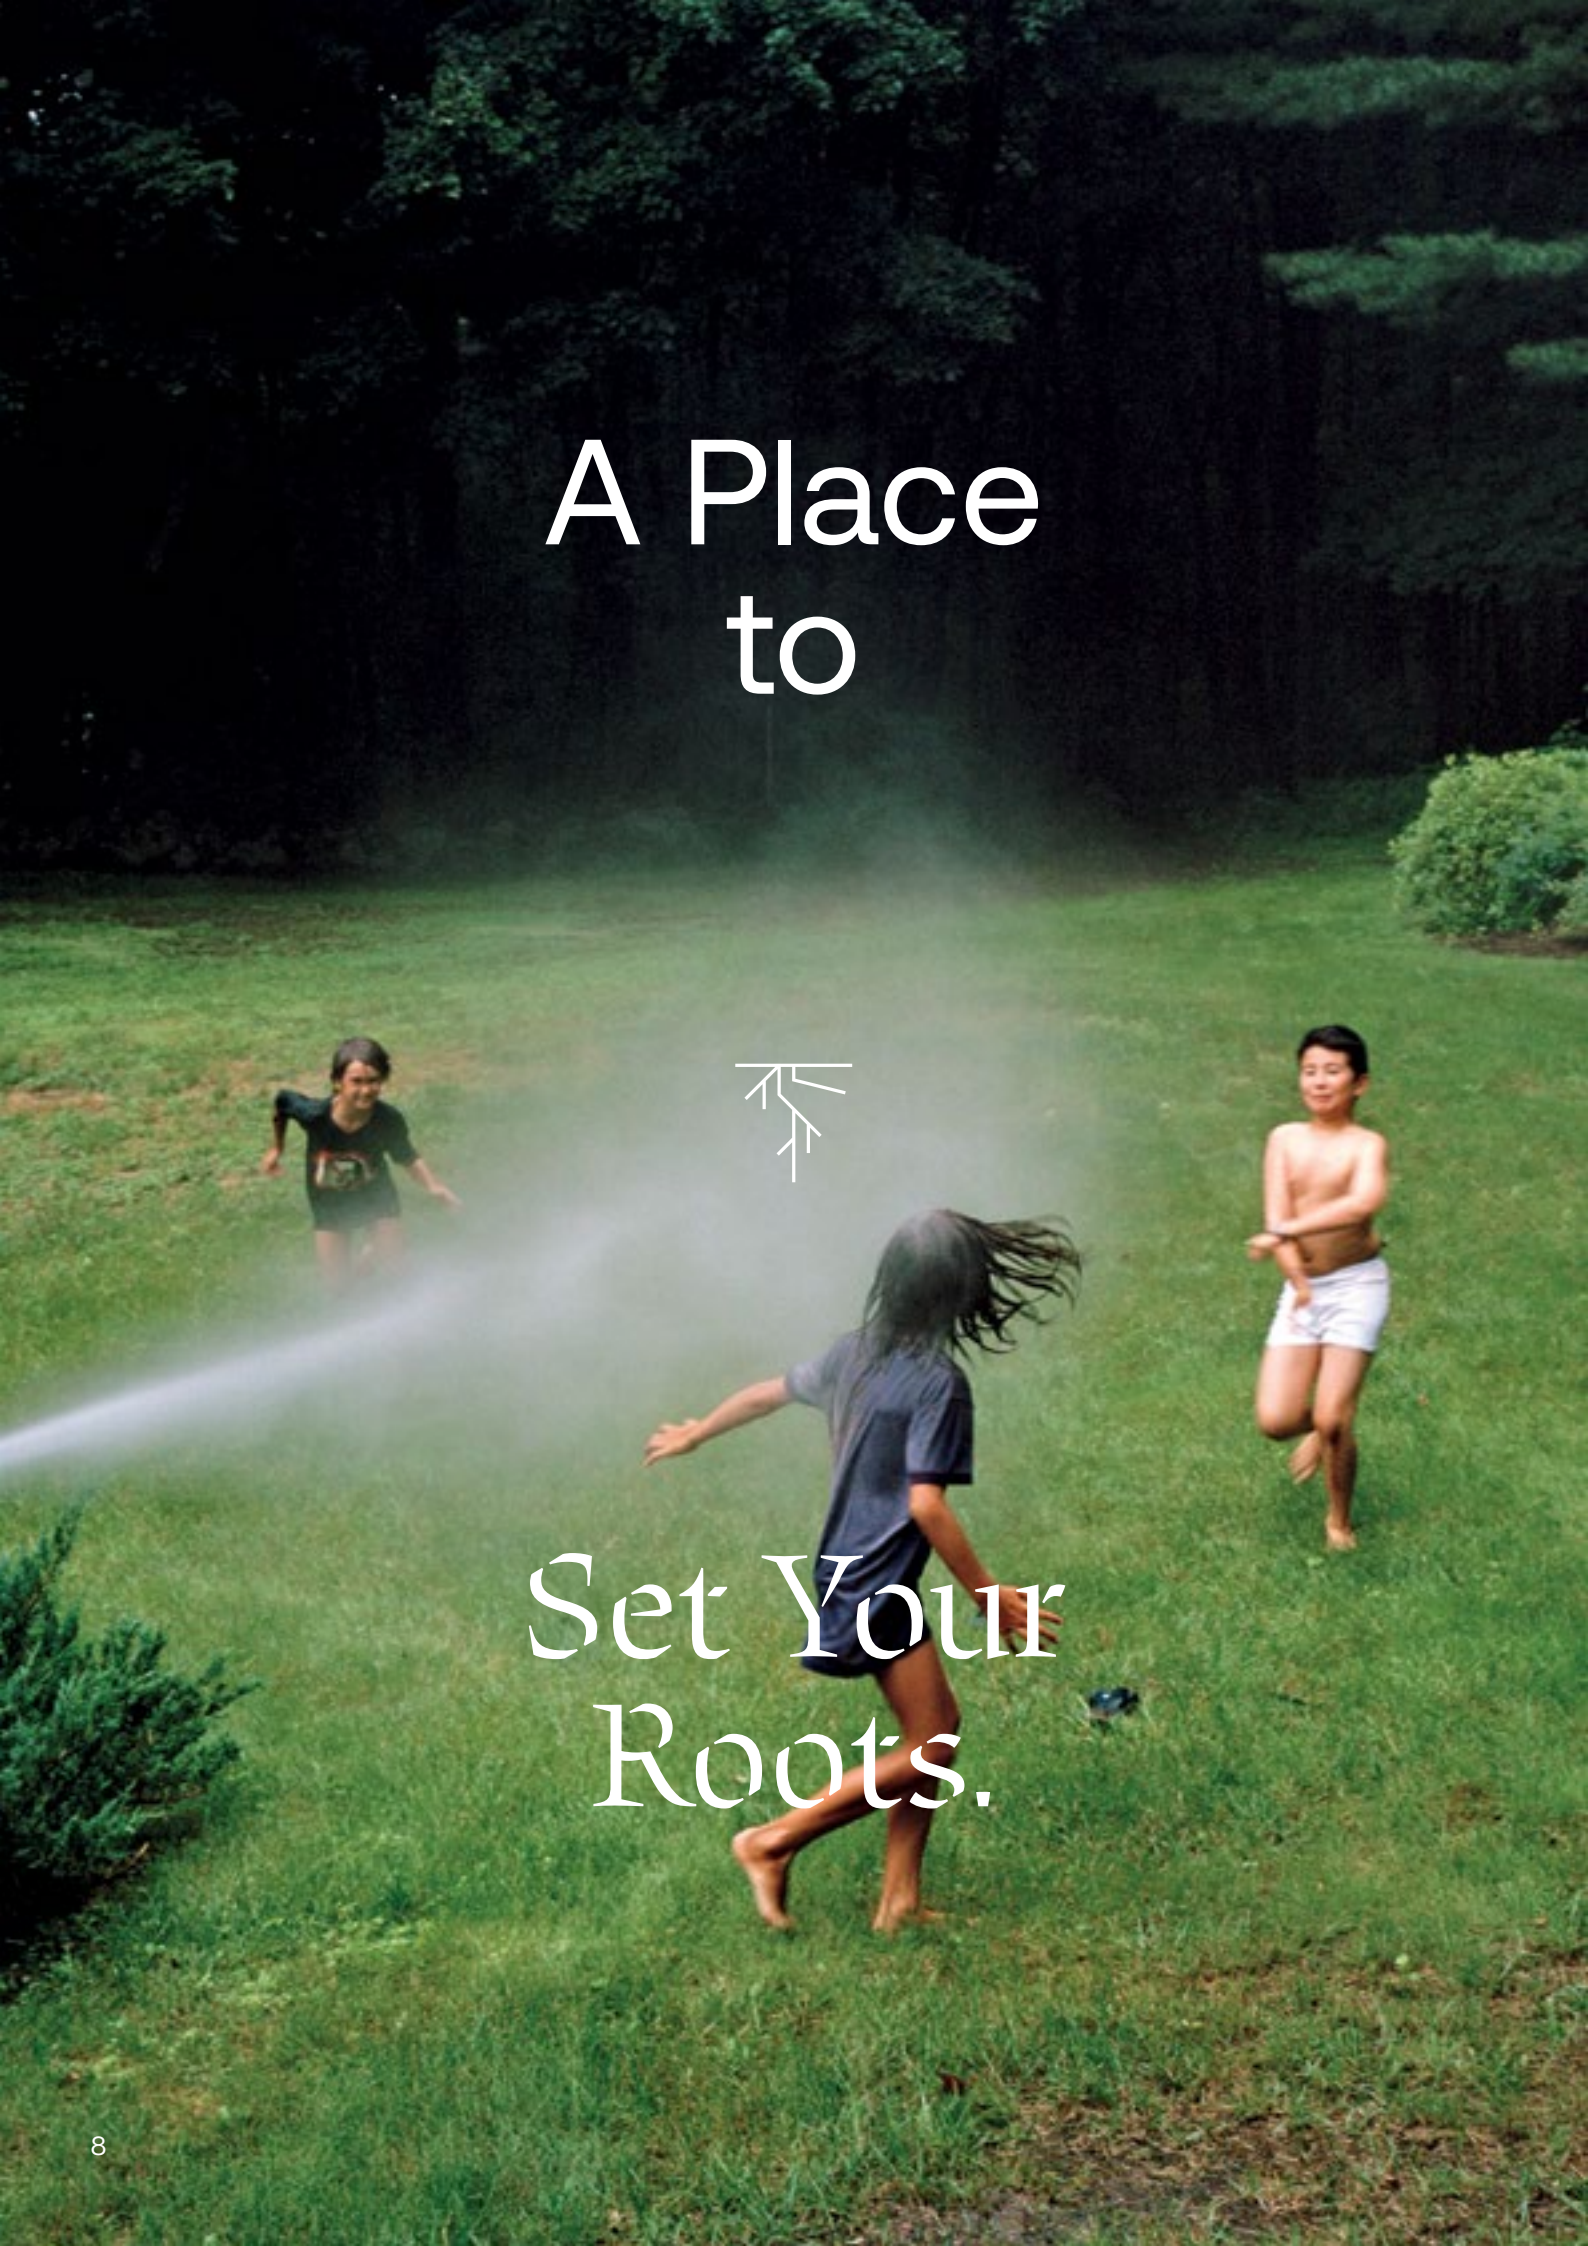

At Ballymore, we believe a home derives greater value from a strong sense of community and shared identity than from physical structures alone. Naas, a flourishing and well-established community comprising families, professionals, craftspeople and nature enthusiasts, immediately caught my attention. Boasting exceptional schools and sports clubs in close proximity, it offers a vibrant setting. Stonehaven seamlessly complements and enriches these existing facets, benefiting the local community. It presents an exhilarating opportunity to unlock Naas' utmost potential as the crowning achievement in the town's historical development. Stonehaven represents a fresh residential concept that paves the way for a sustainable, 21st-century lifestyle. It caters to the longing for improved housing and enhanced access to outdoor spaces while fostering a thriving community.

A Day at the Races

Nestled in the idyllic Kildare countryside, just 4.6km from Stonehaven, Punchestown is a world-renowned destination for all things equestrian. With a storied history dating back to 1875, it is long-established as one of Europe’s premier venues for horse racing.

Closer to home, the beautiful Naas Racecourse offers a diverse range of family activities, including thrilling horse racing events, engaging children’s entertainment, interactive workshops and delicious food options.

Each year at Punchestown, the iconic Punchestown Festival draws top jockeys and trainers from all over the globe, while the spectacular Winter Festival showcases some of the toughest and most competitive races of the season. Punchestown is also known for its refined dining, adding to a vibrant atmosphere that buzzes throughout the year.

Endless Adventures Await.

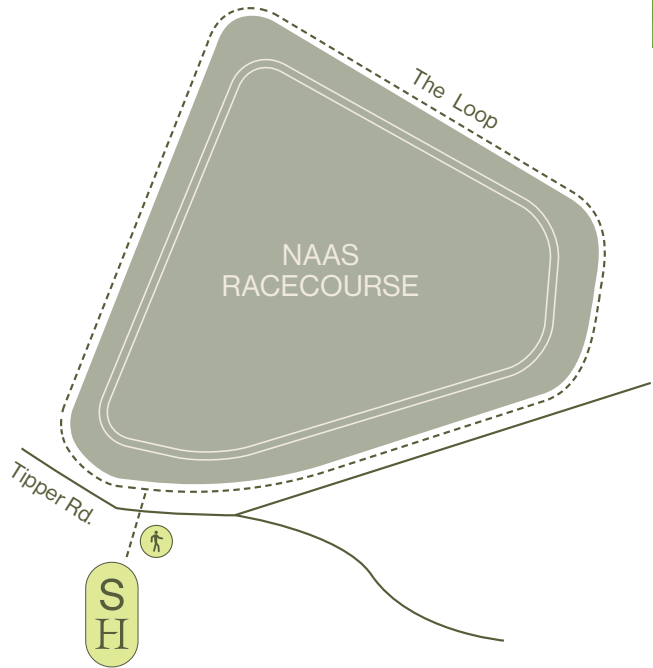

Race Day Is Just the Start

Punchestown offers more than just exceptional racing; it's home to community events, charity fundraisers and renowned concerts featuring artists like Beyoncé and Lionel Richie. Nearby, the Naas Racecourse boasts a history dating back to the 1920s and offers outstanding facilities, which are used for a myriad of community activities throughout the year.

The loop surrounding Naas Racecourse sets the perfect stage for invigorating bike rides, leisurely dog walks, or simply immersing oneself in the serene natural surroundings.

Enjoy direct access to the excitement and energy that radiate from the course. Bring the family along to the Summer Family Fun Day or head to the weekly park run. Witness the thundering hooves and adrenaline-pumping races, or explore the neighbouring trails and parks for an invigorating outdoor experience.

The spirit of equestrianism weaves seamlessly into the fabric of life in Naas, creating a vibrant community that extends far beyond the world of horses. The renowned racecourse offers exhilaration and excitement but it also serves as a gathering place to forge bonds and create memories.

Saddle up and traverse the tracks on horseback, or introduce your children to the joy of pony rides. Immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere of concerts and witness the impressive displays at dog shows. Don't forget to embark on a captivating journey to the nearby National Stud.

Schools with a Tradition of Excellence.

Naas's schools have deep, long-lasting connections with the local community and with the town's sports clubs. They are renowned for their tradition of excellence and for the positive influence they've had across all sections of society. With seven primary schools and five secondary schools, the town offers unrivalled choice. Maynooth University, one of Ireland's top colleges, is within driving distance, while the Dublin colleges and Universities are just a train or bus trip away.

Join a Sporting Tradition.

Naas is renowned throughout the country for its active, engaged sports communities that span generations. Families often get deeply involved in activities, fostering lasting friendships as parents socialise while their children play football, rugby or GAA. Local clubs thrive on this support and involvement, creating a tight-knit network that extends beyond the playing fields.

A Day in the Life

At Stonehaven, food, wellness and a huge range of retail options are not just a lifestyle, but a way of life. Immerse yourself in a blend of culinary refinement and healthy living with farm-to-table dining experiences, elegant cafes, an unrivalled weekend market and top-quality shopping.

Uncover the culinary treasures of Naas, where exquisite flavours are just moments from your door. Start your day at the bustling Naas Food Market or Grá coffee, indulging in fresh local produce and artisanal foods.

Naas has a rich history steeped in craftsmanship and artisanship. Here, you can discover one-of-a-kind ceramics and intricately designed leather goods. Whether you're a collector or are just searching for a special gift, there's always something new to discover.

Shopping in Naas

From boutiques like Emporium Kalu and Gallery 9, Naas offers a diverse range of shopping options to cater to your tastes. Step into carefully curated experiences, where you'll discover unique, handpicked collections showcasing the latest trends and timeless classics.

Naas is renowned for its commitment to quality, and the boutiques in this vibrant town exemplify exceptional craftsmanship, attention to detail, and personalised customer service. Indulge in luxurious fabrics, sophisticated designs, and carefully selected pieces that will elevate your style.

A Tradition of Excellence

Known by its grand entrance and oxidized copper roof, Lawlor’s Hotel is a staple for locals and visitors. The property started out as a tea-room in 1913 and progressed to a famous hotel catering for all the large racecourses in Ireland. Lawlor’s quickly became the largest outdoor catering organisation in Ireland, attracting passing traffic, especially on Croke Park match days. The hotel was a landmark for travellers leaving Dublin heading south or west. The business traditionally employed staff from the town and area, a proud tradition that continues today.

A typical evening at Lawlor’s Hotel is a delight for the senses. Indulge in delectable cuisine from the Bistro or Vi’s Restaurant and savor drinks from the iconic Vi’s bar, the Random Inn, or the original bar. As the night unfolds, the atmosphere comes alive with lively music, creating a vibrant ambiance to complement your dining experience.

Throughout the years, Lawlor’s Hotel has played host to numerous memorable guests and events. The old sales books still hold the names of local dignitaries such as De Burg, Lord Palmerston, De Roberts, Moores, and many more, showcasing the rich history and importance of the hotel in the community.

Savour the Best Food and Drink.

Naas is an unrivalled haven for food and drink enthusiasts. Find an array of fresh, seasonal produce at Swans on the Green, a local family-run greengrocers, delicatessen and coffee shop. When evening falls, quench your thirst at Haydens Bar where craft beer enthusiasts can savor a range of artisanal brews or retreat to the charming Neighbourhood pub, where intimate ambiance creates a truly unequalled experience. At Fletchers, you can immerse yourself in the culture of a famous weekly trad night. Embrace a life where culinary excellence and community spirit intertwine with the comforts of home.

Immerse Yourself in a Cultured Community.

At Stonehaven, it's easy to immerse yourself in culture. This is a place that attracts national attention. From the energy of the Moat Theatre, where youth plays and mystery nights abound to the crafts of the Tuckmill Gallery and family friendly days out at the nearby art-focussed Imagination Station, there's something for your every interest.

Join an Active Community.

Naas is famous for its rich golf, cycling and racing culture and the history of the sports clubs locally stretches back years. Naas Golf Club, founded in 1896 and designed by renowned architect James Braid, is one of the oldest and most prestigious in the country. Just across the road, Craddockstown Golf Club offers members and visitors alike the chance to enjoy its picturesque, rolling parkland. An abundance of cycling and racing clubs means you'll never need something to do. But these are more than just places to get active: they are vibrant anchors that bind the community together and create ties that last.

Discover Peaceful Living.

From the peaceful surrounds of the Town Walk, a beautiful stroll that takes you through the heart of Naas, to the Grand Canal Way, a long-distance walk that runs from Dublin to the River Shannon, Naas offers wellbeing like nowhere else. Enjoy a yoga retreat at Ananta Yoga Studio or indulge in ultimate spa relaxation at he Osorey or The Residence. This is a place where you can nourish your mind, body and soul.
