LIVE WORK GROW

More than just a professional work environment, Central Park is also a warm and welcoming community that brings people together, thanks to our Live Work Grow programme.

At Central Park, your employees have access to many exciting events, talks, workshops, classes, clubs and networks that the Live Work Grow programme has to offer.

High-quality business parks are rare, especially business parks that foster genuine communities. That's what makes Central Park Leopardstown unique.

Live Work Grow is a Central Park initiative that transforms a professional working environment into a warm, welcoming community by finding creative ways to bring people together.

From wellness and fitness classes during lunchtime to after-work social nights and networking events, Live Work Grow offers a variety of activities to help the community connect. The concierge team is also available to take care of life's small tasks, like organizing dry cleaning or booking taxis, to reduce daily stresses.

The team at Live Work Grow are constantly developing and rolling out new initiatives and events to make the Park an even more rewarding place in which to live and work
